vigorous policy is on the eve of being instituted with reference to Cuban affairs.
At the same time it is proper to state that recent publications on this subject have been rather of a sensational character. There has been no significant concentration of war vessels, for the course which has been resolved upon is not likely to lead to much consequence, nor will it require any particular concentration of our fleets.

The large iron-clads are stationed at points to which they were anchored after conclusion of the great naval drill eighteen months ago. The Wabash, the Colorado and other frigates of the first-class have been detailed as receiving vessels, in pursuance of the policy adopted by the Navy Department long since, and entirely irrespective of any considerations touching on the present or future relations of this Government toward Cuban officers. It is true that the vessels indicated are armed and equipped so that they can be made ready at short notice for sailing orders.
When the Virginia affair occurred it found us almost totally helpless, so far as our navy armaments were concerned, and the Secretary of the Navy was compelled to work all the force at his command night and day for weeks, before he was in a condition to meet the emergencies.

It was then the determination that the motto for the future should be "Semper Paratus," and this is the explanation of the present disposition of war vessels of the South Atlantic coast. While, therefore, there has been no attempt to menace Spain by an exhibition of our naval forces, the navy is, and has been for months, in a condition to give a good account of itself.

The views of the President in regard to the conflict which has so long been urged in Cuba have never been concealed. Not only in his annual messages to Congress and diplomatic correspondence, but also in his private conversations he has indicated his opinion that this Government should not stand off and view the contest with passing indifference. He has insisted on the official action solely through the influence of the Secretary of State, for there has been no time within the last three years that Congress would not have endorsed his recognition of Cuban belligerents.

One year ago the President used very strong language in regard to this subject in the original draft of his message; but, subsequently, through representations of the Secretary of State, he was induced to modify it. Later the President has become more confirmed in his views, and believes that it is neither politic nor just for the United States to remain longer silent. There is no doubt that this opinion of his has been communicated to the Government at Madrid, notwithstanding the apparent disclaimer, at least in its outward form, couched in more diplomatic terms than first accounts seemed to indicate.

There is good ground for the belief that in accordance with these views the President, when he deems that the proper time has arrived, will institute such action as he deems the beginning of the end of the struggle and rapine now in riot in Cuba. It is well known to the President and the Governments of Europe that it is in the power of the United States to terminate the conflict in Cuba at any moment and emancipate that island absolutely from Spanish control. The only question to be considered is whether the President would be justified by divine and human law. The President thinks he would. As for the idea of a war with Spain it is perfectly ridiculous. No nation can wage war without money. The Spanish Treasury is empty, and that Government can not raise a dollar in the money markets of Europe.

New York.

Criminal Matters--Mutiny--Erie
--Political--Business, etc. etc.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—The report of Judge Spence, referee in the Erie railroad motion, approving Receiver Jewett's report, was submitted to Judge Lawrence, in the Supreme Court Chambers, yesterday. The Court refused to confirm it, and sent it back to the referee to return to Queens town. It appears that when she started back she had eighteen feet water in her hold, and all the crew had refused to proceed.
The drinking water was contaminated, and deck partly stove in. The passengers joined in requesting the Captain to return.

A Washington special says it is reported that General Benjamin is the leading candidate for United States Senator in Iowa.

The tide of State politics is at its full height here. Numerous meetings were held last night by the various political organizations, and all preparations are being made for a heated campaign. The contest between Tammany and Anti-Tammany in this city promises to be a vigorous one. As usual, charges of false registration have already been fully made and will be properly investigated.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—The claims of all kinds against Veyre & Co., in voluntary bankruptcy, will reach not far from one and a half millions. Those uniting in the petition hold claims amounting to over half a million. Deasway & Hatch, merchants, have failed.

The Board of Managers of the Produce Exchange adopted the following: "That the conduct of Archibald Baxter & Co., as developed in their failure, and in circumstances antecedent thereto, is not such as is consistent with just and equitable principles of trade, and therefore is deserving of severe censure."

Moses P. Handy and Charles J. Jones, late of the editorial staff of the New York Tribune, and James H. Beale, Jr., late of the Boston Post, have purchased the Richmond (Va.) Enquirer, and issue the first number under the new management to-day, as a Conservative Democratic paper.

The Stonewall Jackson Statue.
RICHMOND, VA., Oct. 26.—Foley's statue of Stonewall Jackson was unveiled to-day. The city is full of visitors to witness the inauguration. A remnant of the Stonewall Brigade will be present. Business is generally suspended.

Falled--Murder.

DETROIT, Oct. 26.—A dispatch from Bay City says M. Watson & Sons, lumber merchants, have made an assignment. Liabilities $60,000; assets $150,- 000.

Wm. Stewart, a merchant, was robbed and murdered in Ausable last night.
His skull was crushed and body badly mangled. He was supposed to have had a considerable sum of money on his person.

Virginia City Burning.

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—Dispatches just received from Virginia City via San Francisco state that a fire broke out there this morning and is still raging. All that part of the city north of Taylor street is burnt. The telegraph office, railroad depots and three of the principal hotels have been destroyed. The fire is still burning furiously, with the supply of water exhausted. The flames have not yet crossed Taylor street.

Late Foreign News.

THE NEWMARKET RACES.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—The race for the Cambridgeshire stakes took place at Newmarket to-day, and was won by Sutton. Lord Gowran came in second, and Grey Palmer third.

DUDAS, Oct. 26.—A young man named Borer committed suicide by shootings.

IN CENTRAL AMERICA.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Panama correspondence of the American Press Association:

PANAMA, Oct. 16.—Important events have occurred in Panama within the last six days. The State Government has been overthrown by Gen. Canagay, Commander of the National troops, which arrived here on the 11th inst., and a Provisional Government established.
On the night of the 11th inst. Aizpuriz sent in his ultimatum to President Don Fabio Argueta, to the effect that if he did not surrender to Aizpuriz, he, the latter, would at once make an attack upon the city. President Argueta refused to surrender, and the limit of the ultimatum was extended until noon the next day. Meanwhile several members of the deposed Government fled under arrest and are held as guarantee against any attempt at similar revolution.

ANOTHER ROW.

NICARAGUA, Oct. 26.—The town of Greytown has been attacked by a gang of about 100 men, the Governor killed. The Government has sent troops to the relief of the town.

CARDINAL M'CLOSKEY.

LIVERPOOL, Oct. 26.—Cardinal McClo-skey will be the guest of Cardinal Manning while here. It is said that a conference of leading Catholics of South England will meet here next week to arrange the programme for a public reception to him. It is expected McClo-skey will make a tour of the Provinces.
He will certainly visit Liverpool, and possibly Glasgow.

Three Telegrams.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Oct. 26.—In a prize-fight this morning, Tom Monagan, of New York, whipped Jack Kelley, of Brooklyn, in seven rounds. Every round was in favor of Monagan.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Oct. 26.—The Tabernacle on Schermerhorn street was again crowded this morning, at Moody and Sankey's services. Much enthusiasm was manifested by the immense crowd.
A number of leading Brooklyn clergymen assist the great revivalists in conducting these services.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 26.—Bank notes received for redemption to-day amounted to $550,750; Internal Revenue receipts, $223,672.30; Custom receipts, $10,200.52. The Government agents who were sent to
